CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS
OF THE
VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION FOR PUPIL
TRANSPORTATION

ARTICLE I

Purpose

In order to promote the principles and policies of pupil transportation at all levels; to assist pupil transportation personnel, public and private, throughout the Commonwealth in developing improved performance by advancing professional standards; and by constant and continuous emphasis on the nature of pupil transportation as an effective, supportive service in the education of the young people, we hereinafter provide for the unified effort in executing the purposes for which we stand.

ARTICLE II

Name

The name of this organization shall be the VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION FOR PUPIL TRANSPORTATION

ARTICLE III

Objectives

To establish a clearinghouse for exchanging ideas, techniques and procedures.

To investigate common problems and determine the possibilities for joint effort toward solutions.

To study and recommend change or modifications in rules, regulations, procedures, techniques and laws for consideration and possible adoption or enactment.

To promote further recognition of pupil transportation services as an integral segment of the public and private school systems and to encourage endorsement of and active participation of division superintendents and private school administrators.

To promote the highest professional standards of ethics, efficiency, and economy in all matters pertaining to pupil transportation.

To promote the study, analysis, and dissemination of the most effective policies and practices relative to pupil transportation.

To cooperate with other professional organizations having transportation as all or part of their program emphasis.

To establish closer communication within the pupil transportation department of the public school systems throughout the Commonwealth.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Membership in the Association shall consist of active, associate, and honorary members.

Active (voting) membership shall consist of administrative personnel in pupil transportation such as directors and assistants, supervisors and assistants, and chief mechanics. Active membership shall also include personnel whose responsibilities and duties are related to pupil transportation in some administrative capacity such as training coordinators, state department of education personnel and superintendents.

Retired membership (non-voting) shall consist of any person who has served and paid dues as a member for a minimum of 5 consecutive years and is no longer principally engaged in the administration or supervision of pupil transportation.

Honorary (non-voting) membership shall consist of any person who has contributed meritorious service to pupil transportation in Virginia. Eligibility for Honorary Member Status shall be based upon nomination by majority vote of the appropriate standing committee and confirmation by majority vote of the association membership during a business session. Former administrative employees in pupil transportation no longer actively employed, and others who would be categorized as associate members but who are no longer actively engaged in the field of pupil transportation.

Membership for Life (voting) shall consist of any past president of the Association meeting active service requirements.

Honorary Membership for Life (non-voting) shall consist of any past president of the Association who has retired from active service.

Associate (voting) membership shall consist of for-profit or non-profit businesses or individuals whose primary concentration of interest includes the safe transportation of the young people of the Commonwealth such as school bus body and chassis companies, representatives, and others directly associated with or concerned with the objectives of the Association.

Each person eligible for active membership and having paid dues for the current year shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership.

Each person eligible for associate membership and having paid dues for the current year shall be entitled to all rights and privilege of membership but shall not have the right to hold office in the Association. Honorary members shall be elected by a majority vote at any regular session of the annual meeting. Such members may not vote or hold office.

ARTICLE V

Dues

Active and associate members shall pay annual dues, which shall coincide with the term of office of the Association officers. The term of office shall to July 1 through June 30.

ARTICLE VI

Officers and Directors

The officers and directors of the Association shall consist of a president, a vice-president , a secretary, and a treasurer, each of which shall be elected annually.

In addition, a minimum of four directors shall be elected for two-year terms, half each in alternate years.

Officers typically serve only one term of office. However, an officer may succeed him or herself for one additional term as deemed appropriate by the board or membership.

The officers and directors together with the immediate past president shall serve as the Executive Board.

The Executive Board shall fill by appointment any vacancy occurring during a term in office.

ARTICLE VII

Standing Committees

Standing committees of the Association shall include but may not be limited to:

Auditing
Conference
Constitution and By-Laws
Legislative
Membership
Nominating
Resolution
Scholarship

The president may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Board, introduce to the Association at an annual meeting the need for an additional standing committee. A majority of the membership present and voting shall constitute approval or disapproval.

ARTICLE VIII

Special Committee

Special committees may be appointed by the president to serve specific needs. Such committees shall not be permanent and shall cease to exist immediately upon completion of the temporary responsibilities or when a new president has been installed.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

There shall be at least one annual meeting of the Association of such time and place as shall be determined by the Executive Board.

Emergency or other meetings may be called if, in the judgment of the Executive Board, such meetings are necessary. Concurrence of the majority of the Board is mandatory before such meetings can be called.

ARTICLE X

Nominations and Elections

All officers and directors shall be elected during a business session of the annual meeting of the Association and will assume official duties July 1. A two-thirds majority of the voting members present is required for election.

ARTICLE XI

Quorum

At all Meetings of the Association, a majority of members present and voting subject to the discretion of the presiding officer shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE XII

Changes in Constitution and By-Laws

Changes or additions to the constitution and by-laws may be proposed at any meeting of the Association. Such proposals shall be referred to the committee on Constitution and By-Laws for study and recommendation. If approved, the committee shall submit the recommended changes additions at the next business meeting of the Association. Ratification shall be two-thirds of the members present and voting.

LAWS

I Dues

Active and associate members shall pay dues annually as set forth and approved by the executive board.
